New South Wales http://www.olgr.nsw.gov.au/olgr_default.asp	Online RSA training is NOT accepted in New South Wales venues. A Liquor Administration Board (LAB) approved certificate is the only one accepted in NSW. For class details go to: www.cftnsw.com.au or call 1300 661 205
Victoria http://www.consumer.vic.gov.au	The Nationally Recognised Certificate is suitable for all staff working in the hospitality industry. Online training is NOT accepted for licensees or staff working with packaged liquor in bottle shops and supermarkets, or for venues where they have a condition on their liquor license requiring them to have RSA-trained staff (usually venues trading after 1am with amplified music) – please check with your employer. A face to face course is required to provide a Liquor Licensing certificate.
Queensland http://www.olgr.qld.gov.au/	Queensland OLGR has reviewed all RSA training and as from January 1, 2009 the Regulations are: All new staff employed after 1 January 2009 working in the liquor industry require a current OLGR Training Course Certificate in RSA within 30 days of starting employment. RMLV staff require an OLGR Training Course Certificate. (CFT offer online or face-to-face classes). For staff that were employed prior to 1 January 2009 and are still with the same employer have until 30 June 2010 to gain an OLGR Training Course Certificate. RSA training for volunteers will not be mandatory provided they are supervised by an RSA-trained individual. A licensee or permittee must take reasonable steps to ensure that this supervision is provided. NOTE: The National RSA Statement of Attainment is not valid for New employees after 1 January 2009, or for RMLV requirements. Follow link OLGR Mandatory Training Fact Sheet http://www.olgr.qld.gov.au/resources/liquorDocs/MandatoryRSATrainingUpdatedFactSheet.pdf
